DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 27 March 2006 has been entered.

Status of the Claims

This action is in response to papers filed 27 March 2006 in which claim 1 was amended and a Declaration under 37 C.F.R. 1.132 was submitted.

The Declaration under 37 CFR 1.132 is sufficient to overcome the previous rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103 of claims 1-10 based upon Roche, Landre and Tabor.

Claims 1-10 are under prosecution.

Drawings

The petition to accept color drawings is noted. However, the petition is not approved because a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.84(a)(2) must explain that color drawings or color photographs are necessary because color is an integral part of the claimed design. Any other explanation as to why color drawings or color photographs are necessary will normally not be acceptable (see 37 CFR 1.84(b)(2)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 1634

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) based upon a public use or sale of the invention.

An issue of public use or on sale activity has been raised in this application. In order for the examiner to properly consider patentability of the claimed invention under 35 U.S.C. 102(b), additional information regarding this issue is required as follows:

The Declaration under 37 C.F.R. 1.132: Exhibit B contains "a collection of e-mail communications within the Finishing Team that attest to the successful use of the invention". All of the e-mails have a send date more than one year prior to the filing of the instant application. Therefore, the e-mails provide evidence of public use and are basis for the instant rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(b).

The "Finishing Team" members have e-mail addresses containing "lanl.gov". Hence, the e-mails appear to be from within government facilities. However, there is no indication that use of the instantly claimed invention was practiced in secrecy or under a confidentiality agreement (see MPEP § 2133.03 (a) 4(B)).

An Invention Is in Public Use If the Inventor Allows Another To Use the Invention Without Restriction or Obligation of Secrecy

"Public use" of a claimed invention under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) occurs when the inventor allows another person to use the invention without limitation, restriction or obligation of secrecy to the inventor." In re Smith, 714 F.2d 1127, 1134, 218 USPQ 976, 983 (Fed. Cir. 1983). The presence or absence of a confidentiality agreement is not itself determinative of the public use issue, but is one factor to be considered along with the time, place, and circumstances of the use which show the amount of control the inventor retained over the invention. Moleculon Research Corp. v. CBS, Inc., 793 F.2d 1261, 1265, 229 USPQ 805, 809 (Fed. Cir. 1986). See Ex parte C, 27 USPQ2d 1492, 1499 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1992) (Inventor sold inventive soybean seeds to growers who contracted and were paid to plant the seeds to increase stock for later sale. The commercial nature of the use of the seed coupled with the "on-sale" aspects of the contract and apparent lack of confidentiality requirements rose to the level of a "public use" bar.); Egbert v. Lippmann, 104 U.S. 333, 336 (1881) (Public use found where inventor allowed another to use inventive corset insert, though hidden from view during use, because he did not impose an obligation of secrecy or restrictions on its use.).

Applicant is advised to address whether any written contract of confidentiality, obligation of secrecy, or use restriction for the instantly claimed method.

Applicant is reminded that failure to fully reply to this requirement for information will result in a holding of abandonment.

Conclusion

No claim is allowed.
